DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: a method for the determination of genus, species, breed, and/or geographical origin of biological materials, comprising converting the biological materials by a chemical or bio-catalytic conversion into cleavage peptides; detecting the cleavage peptides by mass spectrometry; and comparing analyses.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable.

Currently, claim 1 is generic to:

- the type of chemical or bio-catalytic conversion, including those found in claim 2 (disulfide bond cleavage by reducing or oxidizing agents), claim 4 (chemical hydrolysis of bio-polymers), and claim 5 (hydrolytic cleavage by hydrolytic cleavage enzymes)

Contingent with election of a reaction, an election of the appropriate reagents must also be made:

- o upon election of disulfide bond cleavage (claim 2):
 - thiols, sulfides, sulfoxides, sulfones, sulfonamides, peroxides, metal catalysts, phosphines, phosphites, phosphates, halogenes, oxiranes, alkynes, olefines, amides, amines, carbon acids, carbon acid esters, alcohol, aldehydes, and ketones (found in claim 3)
- o upon election of hydrolytic cleavage by hydrolytic enzymes (claim 5):
 - trypsin, chymotrypsin, endoproteinase Glu-C (V8-protease), endoproteinase Lys-C, endoproteinase Arg-C, endoproteinase Asp-N, thrombin, papain, pepsin, plasmin and mixtures of such enzymes (found in claim 6)

- type of biological catalyst, including bacteria, fungi, plant cells, animal cells, human cells or tissue and combinations thereof, enzymes, antibodies, proteins, ribo-enzymes, and peptides

Additionally, claim 8 is generic to a plurality of specific detection systems, including atmospheric pressure chemical ionisation (APCI), chemical ionisation (CI), election ionisation (EI), electrospray ionisation (ES), fast atom bombardment (FAB), field desorption (DF), field ionisation (FI) laser induced liquid beam ionisation desorption (LILBID), liquid secondary ion mass spectrometry (LSIMS), matrix assisted laser desorption ionisation (MALDI), particle beam (PB), plasma desorption (PD), secondary ion mass spectrometry (SIMS), thermospray (TSP) or a combination of such ionisation methods (found in claim 9)

Finally, claim 10 is generic to a plurality of liquid chromatography methods, including liquid chromatography, middle pressure liquid chromatography, and high performance liquid chromatography (found in claim 11).

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Conclusion

An election must be made in replying to this Office action. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
